HIGH DEMAND FOR LUXURY INTERIOR DESIGN

PARIS - DOHA, 08.12.2020, 11:26 Time

USPA NEWS - From conversation to concept, the Designer Studio team continues to satiate the demand for luxury interior design to some of the most exacting standards within the Qatar region. This year they have been awarded the title of The Best Luxury Interior Design Studio in Qatar by the Luxury Lifestyle Awards panel in recognition of their continued pursuit in excellence at the top end of the interior design sector.

From conversation to concept, the Designer Studio team continues to satiate the demand for luxury interior design to some of the most exacting standards within the Qatar region. This year they have been awarded the title of The Best Luxury Interior Design Studio in Qatar by the Luxury Lifestyle Awards panel in recognition of their continued pursuit in excellence at the top end of the interior design sector.

The Designer Studio teams exhaustive drive to source superior materials while understanding and exceeding the expectations of their clients impressed the panel in what is often one of the awards most highly competitive sectors. From a region that has seen iconic structures such as the Tornado Tower, The Torch and Burj Qatar define the skyline, the need for comprehensive, interior designers that understand the luxury market and can adapt to its challenges has seen the Designer Studio become a sought-after solution.

The Designer Studio team provide a comprehensive portfolio of projects covering both high-end residential and hospitality sectors which are the result of extensive understanding of each clients' individual requirements and overall aims. Demonstrating an ability to source products that not only perform beautifully for the residential market but with durability for the contract setting, is one that takes knowledge and a thorough understanding of material performance. Exploring and inspiring the luxury market with thoughtful combinations of materials and aesthetics has called for an extensive network of high-end suppliers. Whether that's creating a dream family home or taking on larger hospitality projects, Designer Studio can provide clients with a confident and capable team that takes time to understand their clients and their initial briefs.

From creating contemporary versions of Majlis, to sumptuous living and bedrooms, the teams curated approach to interior design means that they are able to adapt easily to challenges while defining modern luxury spaces. "Since its conception Designer Studio wanted to be at the forefront of creating outstanding interiors that reflect the diverse structures and materials that surround us here in Qatar," commented Shaikha Al-Sulaiti, the Creative Director at Designer Studio "We were thrilled to learn we had won this year's award as it recognises the diligent eye for detail that each member of the team brings to each project, while responding and understanding the individuality of our clients."
